HOUSTON (August 20, 2007) – Messina Hof, the fastest growing award-winning winery and resort in Texas, is pleased to announce that the winery has been selected to produce a special wine label for four wines to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum.

Four George Bush Presidential Library and Museum Messina Hof wines will be released between August XX and November 2007. The wines are Messina Hof's Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, and Port. The beautiful red, white, and blue label attached to each bottle will bear an image of the library that is located in College Station, Texas.

Anniversary festivities begin November 8, 2007 with a dinner featuring Brent Scowcroft, former National Security Advisor to both Presidents Gerald Ford and George H.W. Bush to take place at Messina Hof Vineyard. Festivities will continue through November 11, 2007 with celebrations and the reopening of the remodeled George Bush Presidential Library and Museum, located at 1000 George Bush Drive West College Station, Texas 77845.

“We are honored to have the opportunity to work with the George Bush Presidential Library Foundation,” said Paul and Merrill Bonarrigo, co-founders of Messina Hof Winery. “We are looking forward to the festivities and feel privileged that our wine will support a charitable organization.”
